NOTE: The Broadcasting major requires at least one semester of study at the Messiah College-Philadelphia Campus in conjunction with Temple University in order to complete the major. A full year (Junior year of study) is highly recommended. Students can cross-select a maximum of two classes from other concentrations in order to fulfill the required 15 Temple credits. Temple University courses are subject to change; therefore the department cannot guarantee the availability of course offerings. Contact the Department Chair or your academic advisor for more information.
