

College Honors Program
summer reading discussion with the author,

Dr. Donald Opitz

"The Outrageous Idea of Academic Faithfulness"

Wednesday,
September 15, 2010
7:00 — 8:30 PM
Frey 110

Donald D. Opitz is associate professor of higher education and sociology at Geneva College in Beaver Falls, PA. He is also the director of Geneva's Master of Arts in Higher Education. Don is a graduate of Westminster College, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, and Boston University, and he is an ordained pastor and long-time campus minister.

The Outrageous Idea of Academic Faithfulness is Don's first book, written with his wonderful friend, Derek Melleby.