"Matthew 25 is the core passage about hospitality — 'I was a stranger and you welcomed me' — the kind of hospitality that permeated people's souls and shaped their identities and their religious faith. Hospitality recognizes the worth of the stranger, and it emphasizes our common humanity. . . . Hospitality compels us to reach out to others because as Christians we believe in the imago dei — every individual is created in God's image and worthy of respect."

— President Kim S. Phipps, from "Rediscovering Hospitality," a Presidential Scholar's Lecture
