About Messiah ...

How The Falcons Got Here: Messiah is making its 24th consecutive appearance in the 'Big Dance' this season, arriving by virtue of an automatic bid via the Commonwealth Conference Championship ... ranked #1 in the final Kookaburra/NFHCA Top 20 Coaches' Poll, the Falcons handed #2-ranked Lebanon Valley College a 5-2 defeat in last Saturday's Commonwealth Finals ... Messiah has finished as national runners-up on seven occasions (2009, 2006, 2005, 2002, 2001, 1995 and 1984) ... the Falcons welcome a familiar group to Anderson Field, as the squad faced both Lynchburg and Salisbury earlier this season ... Messiah handed then top-ranked Salisbury a 3-0 loss in a rematch of last year's NCAA Championship game Sept. 18, while the Falcons dropped a 1-2, OT decision to the Hornets Sept. 22 at a neutral site.

How The Lynx Got Here: In 13 seasons as a varsity program, Rhodes has gone from a 2-10 record in its first year (1998) to 17-1 this season ... Rhodes beat DePauw University in the the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Championship by a 2-1 overtime score ... the Lynx' selection to the NCAA Tournament is a first, but the Rhodes' program is not a stranger to success, winning four SCAC Championships in the last seven seasons — including a 13-4 campaign in 2009 ... Rhodes was selected to the NCAAs as a Pool B selection, and was one of only eight teams to earn a First-Round bye ... The Lynx broke into the Kookaburra/NFHCA Top 20 Coaches Poll as the 20th-ranked team in the last week of the season, marking the first time an SCAC school has made an appearance in the national poll.
