Introduction:

The Messiah College Falcons will once again be hosting the Falcon Pitching Clinic. Our clinic staff is excited to provide you with an opportunity to learn more about the sport of fast pitch softball!!!

The clinic is for all beginner and veteran softball athletes. There is no specific level of experience required, just a desire to learn and improve.

Our goal is to teach you skills that will make you a better pitcher, but also to show you how to have fun doing it!

Clinic Highlights:

- ◆ Low athlete-to instructor ratio
- ◆ Top quality pitching instruction
- ◆ Top notch facility with high quality instructional aides
- ◆ Several Collegiate All-Americans on staff

Space is limited so register early and reserve your spot!

Beginners

Designed for a pitcher who is either just beginning to pitch, or who has never had any fundamental instruction

Intermediate I

Designed for a pitcher who has less than two years experience in both clinical instruction and game situations. Focus will be on mechanics and learning/ improving change-up.

Intermediate II

Designed for a pitcher who has more than 2 years experience in both clinical instruction and game situations. Focus will be on drop, curve, screwball

Advanced

Designed for a pitcher who throws fundamentally sound. She has the ability to throw 50 MPH and faster. We will concentrate on all the different pitches and perfecting them.

Clinic Instructors:

Amy Weaver (Camp Director)

As Head Coach for Messiah College, Amy brings with her a long line of experience and tradition with the college over the last sixteen years. Coach Weaver attended Messiah, graduating in 1991; she earned 1st Team MAC honors. Amy has also conducted other pitching clinics in PA and MD. She is three time MAC coach of the year and earned the NCAA East Region Coach of the year honors in 1999

Alex Quigley (Assistant Director)

Alex has been teaching pitchers for ten years. He is the Messiah College pitching coach and runs the pitching clinic at Messiah. He was formerly the Boiling Springs Head Coach for nine years where he was a very successful coach. He continues to run pitching clinics and give private pitching lessons to some of the top pitchers in the area

Messiah College Athletes

Messiah athletes have a long tradition of excellence. Currently four team members are All-Conference Honorees and two team members are NCAA Regional All-Americans.
