MESSIAH COLLEGE SOFTBALL CLINIC— TIME WELL SPENT.

Winter clinic: Feb. 5, 2012

INTRODUCTION

The Messiah College Falcons will once again host the Falcon Softball Clinic. Our clinic staff, which includes instructors from various areas of expertise, is excited to provide you with an opportunity to learn more about the sport of fast-pitch softball.

The clinic is for all beginner and veteran softball athletes from grades 3–12. There is no specific level of experience required, just a desire to learn and improve in all aspects of the game. Instruction will be given on hitting, bunting, throwing, position-specific fielding, pitching and catching. General offensive and defensive strategies will also be addressed.

Our goal is to teach skills that will make you a better softball player and show you how to have fun doing it!

CLINIC BENEFITS

- Low athlete-to-instructor ratio
- Top-quality pitching instruction
- Top-notch facility with high-quality instructional aides
- Hitting machines
- Several collegiate all-Americans on staff
- Trainers and training room facilities

If you enjoyed last winter's clinic, tell a friend!

MESSIAH COLLEGE ATHLETES

Messiah athletes have a long tradition of excellence. Currently, five team members are all-conference honorees and three team members are NCAA regional all-Americans. Last season, the Falcons won the regional championship and advanced to the NCAA College World Series for the fourth time. In 2009, the Falcons won the NCAA Division III National Championship.

CLINIC INSTRUCTORS

CAMP DIRECTOR

Amy Weaver '91

As head coach for Messiah College, Coach Weaver holds a long line of experience and 22-year tradition with the College. She attended Messiah, playing for four years as a starter in center field. Graduating in 1991, she earned first-team MAC honors. She began assistant coaching in 1993 and took over as head coach in 1997. Weaver has also conducted pitching clinics in Pennsylvania and Maryland. She was named MAC coach of the year four times and earned the NCAA East Region coach of the year honor two times, as well as NCAA Div. III National coach of the year in 2009.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

Alex Quigley

Quigley is Messiah's pitching coach. He has been instructing pitchers for more than 10 years. Most recently, he was the head coach for Boiling Springs High School, where he had a very successful career. He will continue now as the assistant coach for the Falcons, specializing in pitching.

Local certified instructors

Former all-American alumni as well as local high school coaches will all be on staff to teach. Messiah's current softball athletes will also be instructing.
