

Jane C. Doe

001 Favorite Street, Anytown, US 00000
jd0000@messiah.edu

EDUCATION

Messiah College, Grantham, PA

Candidate, B.A., May 2007, Major in Spanish, Minor in Politics, GPA 3.935
Universidad de San Francisco, Quito, Ecuador (Study Abroad Program), Spring 2005

Our Lady Academy, Bay St. Louis, MS

Valedictorian, GPA 4.0
National Merit Scholar

PUBLICATIONS

Doe, J.C. "Article Title 1." Journal Title. (1 January 2005).

Doe, J.C. and Joe Smith. "Article Title 2." Publication Title. (2 March 2006).

EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant, Department of Politics, 2005-6

Assisted with research on Canadian political culture.
Student Representative at a conference hosted by the Association of Canadian Studies in the United States (ACSUS).

Research Associate, Council on Hemispheric Affairs, Summer 2005

Wrote and prepared press releases on Latin American issues for global media.
Did extensive editing work, including holding a Managing Editor position for Washington Report on the Hemisphere, COHA's biweekly publication.
Personal work featured on several national and international news programs, including the National Public Radio-affiliated "Voice of America."

Campus Leader, International Justice Mission, Messiah College, 2003-4

Wrote Chapter Constitution.
Oversaw chartership process for official school organization status and funding.
Presided over weekly meetings.
Led the chapter in various awareness-raising and fund-raising endeavors coinciding with chapter goal to raise awareness of and be active in the fight against global injustice.

Activist, School of the Americas Watch, 2004

Educated Messiah College campus through multi-media presentation about abuses committed against Latin American citizens by the School of the Americas.
Assisted in organizing first-ever Messiah student trip to the protest against the School of the Americas in Ft. Benning, Georgia.
Lobbied senators and representatives in Washington, DC to pass a bill to close the School of the Americas.

Intern, Urban Impact, New Orleans, Louisiana, May-August 2004

Assisted in developing college preparatory education programs.
Designed curriculum and taught in middle school summer school program.
Led evening programs for kids in the projects.
Educated suburban high school students about urban issues.

Member, La Alianza Latina, Messiah College, 2003-2006

Educated students about issues relevant to Latin Americans.
Participated in Latin American cultural activities.

Tutor, Mt. Pleasant Hispanic Center, Harrisburg, PA, 2003, 2005

Assisted migrant Hispanic children with school work.

Peer Leader, Messiah College, 2004

Acted as a student mentor for a group of incoming first-year students.
Led orientation activities.
Organized weekly activities to integrate students into Messiah College academic and student life.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Messiah College First Year Merit Award, 2004

Awarded to top student from the first-year class, selected on the basis of academic performance, dedication to community, and leadership.

Messiah College Trustee's Scholarship, 2003-2007

Four year, full-tuition scholarship awarded to top four students of 700 incoming first year class.

Messiah College Honors Program, 2003-2007

Selected for membership through highly competitive scholarship and application process.

Messiah College Diplomat, 2003-2006

Selected by departmental faculty to serve as one of two student representatives of Politics Department.

Spoke to prospective students and parents about Politics major.

Messiah College Faith and the Academy Conference

Selected to be student representative of the School of Humanities.

REFERENCES

Dr. Linda Parkyn, Professor, Messiah College Spanish Department

P.O. Box 3037
(717) 796-6770

Dr. Gordan Brubacher, Professor, Messiah College Biblical and Religious Studies Department

P.O. Box 2053
(717) 796-3420