March 28, 2014, 5 PM

High Foundation Recital Hall, Messiah College

This event is part of Market Square Concerts’ Soundscape educational program, and is co-presented by Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra & Messiah College School of the Arts.

World-renowned pianist and teacher Ann Schein will give a master class to Greater Harrisburg area students on Saturday, March 28 at 5:00 PM in High Foundation Recital Hall at Messiah College. The event is FREE and open to the public!

Ann Schein’s amazing career has earned her high praise in major American and European cities and in more than 50 countries around the world. She has performed with great conductors including George Szell, James Levine, Seiji Ozawa,

James dePreist, David Zinman, Stanislaw Skrowacewski, and Sir Colin Davis, and with major orchestras including the New York, Los Angeles, and London Philharmonics, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Baltimore Symphony, the National Symphony Orchestra, and the BBC Symphony Orchestra. She performed at the White House during the Kennedy administration, and she has toured with the great soprano, Jessye Norman. They are featured in songs by Alban Berg on Sony Classical. Recent recordings include a Schumann album on Ivory Classics, a Chopin album, and an American music album on MSR Classics, including works of Aaron Copland, and Elliott Carter.

Her legacy of teachers from Mieczyslaw Munz to Arthur Rubinstein and Dame Myra Hess, has continued through her own teaching. From 1980-2001 she was on the piano faculty of the Peabody Conservatory, and from 1984 to the present as an artist-teacher in the Aspen Music Festival and School.
