Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Benefits (SNAP)

Did the student or parent receive SNAP benefits (food stamps) during the calendar year 2012 or 2013?

☐ Yes.  ☐ No.

Dependent Student: Answer this question about your parents’ household which includes:

• The student.
• The parents (including a stepparent) even if the student doesn’t live with the parents.
• The parents’ other children if the parents will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2014–2015. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
• Other people if they now live with the parents and the parents provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2015.

Independent Student: Answer this question about your household which includes:

• The student.
• The student’s spouse, if the student is married.
• The student’s or spouse’s children if the student or spouse will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, even if the children do not live with the student.
• Other people if they now live with the student and the student or spouse provides more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2015.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2012 or 2013.
