Identity & Mission

Messiah College is a Christian college of the liberal and applied arts and sciences. The College is committed to an embracing evangelical spirit rooted in the Anabaptist, Pietist, and Wesleyan traditions of the Christian Church. Our mission is to educate men and women toward maturity of intellect, character, and Christian faith in preparation for lives of service, leadership, and reconciliation in church and society.

Overview

Messiah College offers a high-quality, private, coed, undergraduate education that effectively integrates intellect, character, and Christian faith for more than 2,900 students in a residential setting.

Campus Locations:

Main Campus—Scenic 485-acre suburban campus located in Grantham, Pa., 12 miles southwest of the state capital, Harrisburg—providing easy access to urban centers such as Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington, D.C.

Philadelphia Campus—In 1968, Messiah College launched a satellite campus in inner-city Philadelphia, affiliated with Temple University—the first partnership of its kind between a private Christian college and a state-affiliated university.

President

Kim S. Phipps, Ph.D., began her term as the eighth president of Messiah College in December of 2004.

History

Originally named the Messiah Bible School and Missionary Training Home, Messiah College was founded in 1909 by the Brethren in Christ Church. In 1972, ownership by the Church was replaced by a covenantal relationship in which legal responsibility for the College was placed with a self-perpetuating Board of Trustees.

Academic Structure

Messiah College’s academic program is structured into five interdisciplinary schools: the School of the Arts; the School of Education and Social Sciences; the School of Health and Natural Sciences; the School of the Humanities; and the School of Mathematics, Engineering, and Business. Each school is led by its own dean who collaborates with faculty, students, and the surrounding region to create visionary educational communities.

Economic & Cultural Impact

Messiah College annually injects $46.1 million into the greater Harrisburg regional economy. The College also hosts a busy schedule of regional and national conferences, lectures, and symposiums, as well as concerts, recitals, plays, musicals, and art exhibits through its School of the Arts.

Facilities

Academic Facilities—Boyer Hall, Kline Hall of Science, Frey Hall, Jordan Science Center, The Oakes Museum, The Boyer Center, Climenhaga Fine Arts Center, and Sollenberger Sports Center.

Computer Facilities—Includes 527 computers in various academic and residence hall labs, all of which are connected to a campuswide network. Individual residence hall rooms have been equipped for a campus network/Internet connection for personal computers.

Murray Library—Paper volumes 295,518; current periodicals 1,165; microforms 118,682; audiovisual materials 18,528. The library also houses a computer lab, media center, and video production center.

Residential Facilities—The College offers eight traditional on-campus residence halls and four apartment-style residences on campus, each well equipped and controlled by a security access system.

Larsen Student Union—A new student-centered facility providing learning and leisure space for the Messiah community.
