

Messiah University

Department of

Theatre & Dance

announces its 2021-2022 School Series

“Much Ado About Nothing”

Nov. 18, 10 a.m.

Written by: William Shakespeare

Directed by: Daniel Inouye

“Much Ado About Nothing” is one of Shakespeare’s wittiest romantic comedies. The story contrasts two pairs of lovers in a clever and suspenseful “battle of the sexes” in an imaginative comedy about the chaos created in the pursuit of love.

“A Year with Frog and Toad”

March 1, 10 a.m.

Book and Lyrics by: Willie Reale

Music by: Robert Reale

Directed by: Ed Cohn

Waking from hibernation in the Spring, Frog and Toad plant gardens, swim, rake leaves, go sledding and learn life lessons along the way. The two best friends celebrate and rejoice in the differences that make them unique and special.

DEPARTMENT OF
THEATRE AND DANCE

Questions?

Contact Deb Hawkins at dhawkins@messiah.edu or 717-796-5045.

For tickets:

Call the ticket office at 717-691-6036.

Tickets are $1 for this special school performance.

For information about our season, please visit arts.messiah.edu or call 717-796-5045 to request a season brochure.