STALKING:

Stalking is defined as a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to

A) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or

B) suffer substantial emotional distress

A course of conduct is considered to be two or more acts, including, but not limited to acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property.

ARE YOU BEING STALKED? KNOW THE SIGNS
