

Multicultural Scholars are encouraged to attend diversity events that foster their awareness of domestic racial matters and ethnic identity in preparation for reconciliation in the church and society. The events listed below are approved for this semester. Please feel free to contact the Assistant Director of Multicultural Scholarship Programs to suggest other events.

Sunday, January 14, 8:00pm, Larsen Student Union

Sho Baraka, Spoken Word & Rap

Tuesday, January 16, 7:00pm, Hostetter Chapel

Martin Luther King Evening Chapel: Mrs. Juanita Abernathy

Wednesday, January 17, 5:00pm, Parmer Cinema

Open Council "Present Stories from the Past: Reflecting on the Civil Rights Bus Tour"

Thursday, February 1, 6:30pm-6:00pm

Trip to Washington, D.C.: National Museum on African American History and Culture

Thursdays, February 8, 15, 22, March 1, 8, 9:45am, LOFT

Martin and UC Amigo chapel series

Thursday, February 22, 7:30pm, Parmer Hall

Edwidge Danticat, "Home as Grief, Home as Us", Keynote Lecture for 2018 Humanities Symposium

Monday, February 26, 7:30pm, Parmer Cinema

Teach Us All, a powerful documentary film about educational inequality

Tuesday, April 3, 7:00pm, Parmer Hall

Storytellers Chapel facilitated by the Intercultural Office

Wednesday April 4th

MLK50 Events

Saturday, April 7, 5:30pm, Hitchcock Arena

International Banquet

Wednesday, April 11

The Human Library

Wednesday, April 11, 6-10pm, Boyer 131

Bollywood Nite

Wednesday, April 11, 7pm

Waking up White