

Fall 2019 Honors Congress events

Opening lecture by CHP director, Dr. James LaGrand.
Required for first-year CHP students; optional for other students.

Wed., Sept. 11, 7 p.m., Alexander Auditorium [Frey 110].

Girl Rising (2013), film in fall documentary series.

Wed., Sept. 18, 9:00 p.m., Parmer Cinema [Boyer 137].

Panel discussion on the disputed question: "Should the university value and protect intellectual freedom?" co-sponsored by the Philosophy Club.

Thurs., Sept. 26, 4:15 p.m., Boyer 131.

W;T, a play written by Margaret Edson Limited number of tickets available

Sat. Oct. 5, 8:00 p.m., Poorman Black Box Theatre, High Center.

Student colloquium on "The Pursuit of Love in an Age of Distractions" at Grove City College.
(Participation counts as 3 Honors Congress activities.)

Oct. 10-12.

Heroine (2017), film in fall documentary series.

Wed., Oct. 16, 9:00 p.m., Parmer Cinema [Boyer 137].

"Creating Artist's Books from Object to Identity," presentation by Kathy T. Hettinga, sponsored by the Friends of Murray Library.

Fri., Oct. 25, 7:30 p.m., Martin Commons.

"How Democracies Die," lecture by Dr. Steven Levitsky, co-sponsored by the Department of Politics and Center for Public Humanities. Free tickets available at Ticket Office

Mon. Oct. 28, 7:00 p.m., Parmer Hall, High Center.

Talk-back panel on the state of democracy and freedom today.

Wed., Oct. 30, 4:00 p.m., Boyer 131.

"Can a Scientist Believe in Miracles?" lecture by Dr. Ian Hutchinson, CHP Keynote event, co-sponsored by the Central Pennsylvania Forum for Religion and Science and College Ministries.

Tues., Nov. 5, 7:00 p.m., Hostetter Chapel.

Talk-back panel on science and miracles.

Wed., Nov. 6, 4:00 p.m., Kline 120.

Brain, Heart, World (2018), film in fall documentary series.

Wed., Nov. 13, 9:00 p.m. Parmer Cinema [Boyer 137].

"The State of Religious Freedom in the World Today," panel presentation by Daniel C. Holtrop and Saghar Erica Kasraie.

Mon., Nov. 18, 4:00 p.m., Parmer Cinema [Boyer 137].

Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra concert, featuring the music of Prokofiev, DiLorenzo, Ravel, and Debussy. Limited number of tickets available

Sat., Nov. 23, 7:30 p.m., The Forum, 500 Walnut St., Harrisburg PA.

I Am Not Your Negro (2016), film in fall documentary series.

Wed., Dec. 4, 9:00 p.m., Parmer Cinema [Boyer 137].

N.B. Details subject to change. Additional Honors Congress events may be added to calendar.

