

THE STATE OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN THE WORLD TODAY

Monday, Nov. 18, 4 p.m.

Parmer Cinema [Boyer 137]

Daniel C. Holtrop U.S. State Department

Holtrop has been with the State Department for many years, first serving as Chief in the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs within the Office of International Religious Freedom. Currently, he serves as Deputy Director in the Office of Verification, Planning, and Outreach within the Bureau of Arms Control, Verification, and Compliance.

Students interested in exploring vocations related to international relations or human rights are encouraged to attend.

Refreshments will be served.

Sponsored by the College Honors Program

