

HONORS PROGRAM

“Matter + Spirit: A Chinese/American Exhibition.”

January 21-February 21, Aughinbaugh Gallery.

Student-led book conversation on Atul Gawande’s Being Mortal.

Friday, January 29, 4:30 p.m., Jordan 150.

American Scientific Affiliation symposium: “Scientific & Spiritual Lessons in the Time of COVID.”

Saturday, January 30, noon, via livestream. See ASA website for details: asa3.org.

Seminar discussions on Books 17-20 of Homer’s Odyssey.

Feb. 1-5, 4:30 p.m.; Feb. 3, 7:00 p.m., Boyer 131; Feb. 4, 7:00 p.m., via livestream. > Online reservation req. <

Information session on senior projects.

Monday, February 8, 4:30 p.m., Boyer 131.

“What is the origin of evil?” lecture by David Schenk.

Friday, February 12, 7:00 p.m., Parmer Hall.

Student-led book conversation on Mark Miodownik’s Stuff Matters.

Tuesday, February 16, 4:30 p.m., Jordan Lounge.

Film: O Brother Where Art Thou?

Friday, February 19, 7:30 p.m., Parmer Hall.

Student-led book conversation on Rosaria Butterfield’s The Gospel Comes with a House Key.

Wednesday, February 24, 4:30 p.m., Boyer 131.

“Popular Myths about Science and Religion,” lecture by Michael Newton Keas.

Thursday, February 25, 7:30 p.m., via livestream.

“Troubling the Narratives of a Democratic Nation: Whose Stories Are These?”

Humanities Symposium keynote lecture by Jacqueline Jones Royster.

Thursday, March 4, 7:00 p.m., via livestream.

Talk-back panel on Humanities Symposium keynote lecture.

Monday, March 8, 4:30 p.m., Boyer 131.

“Virtual into the City International,” sponsored by the Career & Professional Development Center.

March 8-12, via livestream.

Read-aloud favorite passages from The Odyssey, Books 21-24.

Monday, March 15, 4:30 p.m., Boyer 131.

Student-led book conversation on David Eagleman’s The Brain.

Wednesday, March 17, 4:30 p.m., Jordan Lounge.

Viewing of student-selected film on theme “International Films,” with reception following.

Wednesday, March 24, 7:30 p.m., Hostetter Chapel.

Student-led book conversation on Marilynne Robinson’s Jack.

Monday, March 29, 4:30 p.m., Boyer 131.

“Why I Read Homer to My Children,” lecture by Danielle Bennette Dukes.

Tuesday, April 6, 7:00 p.m., Brubaker Auditorium.

Student conference on The Odyssey.

Wednesday, April 14, 4:30 p.m., Hostetter Chapel.

Student TED Talks.

Fri., Apr. 16, time TBA, Parmer Cinema.