Have you ever considered majoring in theatre?

The Messiah University Theatre Arts Academy (MCTAA) specializes in professional training for emerging theatre artists entering grades 3-12.

Students will have a great time experiencing theatre firsthand through interactive games, creative improvisation, age-appropriate scene work and even through doing a short show for family and friends at the end of the camp week! Seasoned theatre professionals and undergraduate theatre majors mentor students as they discover and hone their creative potential.

- Receive personalized attention
