Academic Coaching

Available to any undergraduate student at Messiah University, academic coaching has numerous benefits which enhance a student's university experience. Academic coaching often involves practical advice about study skills, time management, organizational tools and test-taking strategies, but it also includes the opportunity for students to talk about the challenges and joys of university life. Coaching sessions are tailored to meet the individual needs of each student and to help them make healthy and productive choices.

- Sign-ups available by searching "Academic Coaching" on FalconLink

Physics course review sessions

These sessions are primarily to review assigned homework and concepts covered in lecture. A teaching assistant is available to answer questions and review assigned problem sets.

- Available for PHYS201, PHYS202, PHYS211, PHYS212
- Location and time vary by class. Ask instructor for details
- No sign-up required
- Questions? Contact your course instructor

Supplemental Instruction (SI)

Supplemental instruction is a program that targets "high-risk courses" rather than "high-risk students." The SI review sessions are interactive, and students acquire effective study strategies as they review course material and prepare for tests using mock exams. Statistical data suggest that students who attend SI sessions earn 1/2 to a full letter grade higher than those who choose not to attend.

- Available for BIOL185, CHEM103, CHEM204, CHEM309, MATH211, NURS310
- Location and time vary by instructor. Schedule can be found at messiah.edu > academics > academic support > supplemental instruction
- No sign-up required
- Questions? Contact Kristin Runyon, coordinator for SI, at KRunyon@messiah.edu

Writing Center

The Writing Center is a free service that hopes to help students become better writers. Our tutors work individually with students to help them write and revise their own papers. We accept papers at any stage of the writing process, from brainstorming to final revisions. No matter what you're writing, we're here to help!

- Available for all undergrad students, all courses
- Location and time: Writing Center in Murray Library, times available when signing up
- Schedule an appointment by searching "Writing Center" on FalconLink
- Questions? Contact writingcenter@messiah.edu
