Third annual Career and Graduate School Expo set for Nov. 3

Mark your calendars - and syllabi! The Career Center will sponsor the third annual Career and Graduate School Expo on Monday, Nov. 3 from 11 to 3 p.m. All first-year through senior-year students, alumni, faculty, and staff are invited to attend. Because the number of recruiters has continued to expand, we are moving the event to Hitchcock Arena this year. Approximately 150 employers and graduate-level programs will be in attendance to recruit for internships, professional employment, graduate, and seminary programs. Additionally, in partnership with the Agapè Center's Missions Awareness Week, the Expo will also feature a variety of opportunities with missions organizations around the world. Your support for and promotion of the event is greatly appreciated.

New web team contact information

The office of marketing and public relations welcomes Craig Hise and Ramona Fritschi to the web team. Craig serves the Messiah community as the web content editor, and Ramona joins us as the web services manager. Over the next few months the team will be finalizing several large projects while continuing to maintain and update existing content on the site. To help the web team manage projects and requests in the most efficient way, if you have new web projects to initiate, please call Kim Christen, assistant for the office of marketing and public relations, at ext. 7326 and she will schedule a time for you to meet with the web team to discuss and schedule your project. For web questions, content updates, or concerns or issues regarding the College website, please e-mail webmaster@messiah.edu for the quickest response. We are pleased to welcome our new web team and look forward to building a better, more efficient website for our students, parents, alumni, and employees.

Area businesses offer employee discount

Did you know that you can eat authentic Thai food only five miles from campus? Pahka's Thai House now offers a 10 percent discount for employees and students.

Do not forget that Bruster's Ice Cream offers a 15 percent discount when you show your Messiah College ID. Cool off with a waffle cone today!
