

Cast your burden on the Lord; and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved.

—PSALM 55:22 (NRSV)

Intercom deadline

The deadline for each issue of the Intercom is 4 P.M. Tuesday. To help us ensure the speed and accuracy of production, please use the Intercom e-mail address, intercom@messiah.edu, or the user-friendly submission form on the Intercom website at www.messiah.edu/intercom/submit.html to send in information. If you have questions, please call the office of marketing and public relations at ext. 7342.

Remembering one another

I would like to thank everyone for their well wishes, prayers and flowers for my surgery in June. I am feeling much better and am now back full-time. I would also like to thank everyone for their prayers during the recent passing away of my father.

— Russ Ehrich, project manager for general building maintenance

Please remember Paul Morgan, director of admissions for visitation, and his family in prayer at the recent death of Paul's father on July 13.

Campus people

Messiah College welcomes the following new employees: Elizabeth Kizonas, residence director, Grantham Hall/Smith Apartments; Heidi R. Lutz, assistant professor of nursing. Welcome to the community!

Please welcome Matt Hunter ('97) back to the Messiah community as the new national and international service and missions director. Hunter is currently a PhD candidate in religious studies at Temple University where he has received a teaching fellowship and has worked as a teaching assistant. In addition to pursuing his graduate work at Temple, he has taken classes towards masters of divinity at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and seeks ordination within the Presbyterian Church USA.

Plan to attend Community Day on Aug. 28

All employees are encouraged to attend Community Day (formerly named President's Day) on Tuesday, Aug. 28. The Community Day gathering is scheduled from 9 to 10:30 a.m. in Hostetter Chapel, followed by light refreshments from 10:45 to 11:45 a.m. on the Eisenhower Campus Center lawn (rain location for refreshments is Howe Atrium, Boyer Hall). This annual Messiah tradition is the ceremonial launch of the new academic year for employees. President Kim Phipps will be sharing the State of the College Address and the College's key priorities for the coming year. All offices and departments (except dispatch and Early Learning Center) will close from 8:45 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Aug. 28 so employees may attend the gathering and reception that follows.

Conference services offers training session on event planning

The office of conference services will be hosting a brief training session on Thursday, Aug. 23 at 9:30 a.m. in Frey Hall, room 150. This training will explain and clarify the process of planning an event at Messiah, including instruction on the use of the event calendar form. Whether you are new to Messiah, new to your position, or if you just need a refresher course on this sometimes confusing process, this training is for you! If interested, please contact Kristin Maginnis, conference services room reservationist, at ext. 3190.

Business office offering Banner and Discoverer training session

The business office is offering a course in the self-service module of Banner, our accounting software. This will include training in the Discoverer reports program. Wendy Starnier, controller, will be presenting. The session is scheduled for Thursday, Aug. 16 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. in Boyer Hall, room 337. Contact Irene Fabry, administrative assistant to vice president of finance, at ifabry@messiah.edu or ext. 5237 to make a reservation.
