

Volume XXX, No. 37

All these things my hand has made, and so all these things are mine, says the Lord. But this is the one to whom I will look, to the humble and contrite in spirit, who trembles at my word.

Remembering one another

Congratulations to Hilary Kreider, facility services department environmental health and safety manager, and her husband Todd upon the birth of their son Cole William Kreider. Cole was born on Sept. 18 at 12:40 a.m., weighing 8 lbs., 5.5 oz. and 21 in. Everyone is doing fine.

Campus people

Messiah College welcomes the following new employees: Timothy T. Hartlieb, catering sous chef; Francesca M. Scalfaro, assistant athletic trainer; Aaron M. Schwartz, assistant men's soccer coach; Dustin E. Shambach, assistant men's soccer coach; and Benjamin L. Stum, assistant wrestling coach. Welcome to the community!

Raeann Hamon, distinguished professor of family science and gerontology, co-authored the book, "Exploring Family Theories" (Second Edition) which was just released by Oxford University Press.

An article by Randall Zwally, senior lecturer in music, was published in the September issue of the "National Journal of the Music Library Association, Notes." The article was a review of performance DVDs by world-acclaimed classical guitarists Ana Vidovic and Martha Masters. The focus of the article was, "Classical Guitar: It's Not Just A Man's World Anymore!"

Information session for Philadelphia Campus available to students and staff

Learn details about spending a semester at the Philadelphia Campus. Hear stories from students and staff to truly understand the Philadelphia Campus experience. Enjoy TastyKakes, a Philadelphia tradition. We will meet in the Agapè Center, the new location of the Philadelphia Campus office, on Wednesday, Oct. 1 at 11 a.m. RSVP to Kate Nicely, recruitment coordinator for the Philadelphia campus, at knicely@messiah.edu or just show up. Be sure to encourage the students you know to attend.

Visit by representative from Lithuania set for Oct. 2 and 3

On Thursday, Oct. 2 and Friday, Oct. 3, Allison Davis, a representative of LCC International University (formerly Lithuania Christian College), will be on campus to talk with students and faculty about opportunities for students to study in Lithuania. The school offers courses in accounting, business, communications/marketing, theology, and social sciences. Additionally, students take part in educational excursions to Estonia, Latvia, and Russia. To learn more about this program, please visit www.messiah.edu/academics/epicenter/programs/LCC.html. Also, please encourage interested students to attend one of the information sessions on October 2 at 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. If you are interested in inviting Davis to speak in your classes or would like to meet with her one-on-one, please contact Wendy Lippert, director of the EpiCenter, at wlippert@messiah.edu or ext. 6089.

Graduate school opportunities U.K. information session on Oct. 2

On Thursday, Oct. 2, the Career Center will host a representative from Across the Pond to offer an information session from 12 to 1 p.m. in the Eisenhower Board Room. Across the Pond offers free professional assistance to U.S. students interested in applying to graduate schools in the U.K. For more information, check out their website www.studyacrossthepond.com. Reflection

There is harmony in autumn, and a luster in its sky, which through the summer is not heard or seen, as if it could not be, as if it had been!
