

What is Your Spirituality Type?

For each pair of statements in the left and right hand columns, circle the one in each pair that best fits your preferences. Think in terms of what appeals to you most. (If you try to circle both the scoring won't work!!!)

Part A

Pictures, symbols and metaphors help me understand God.

God is unfathomable and can only be known in silent and inexpressible love.

I prefer to think of God as revealed and knowable

I prefer to think of God as hidden in mystery.

I prefer to focus on God's closeness to us

I prefer to focus on God's holiness (God's radical difference from us)

The gospel requires me to use my intellect in an affirmative way.

The gospel invites me to experience God in a mysterious relationship of love.

Meditation on God's Word leads me to illumination of God's will.

Contemplation of God's being leads me to union with God.

Part B.

Seeing God in the ordinary

Seeking the extraordinary to experience God

Letting go

Taking charge

Spending time with God

Doing things for God

Floating

Swimming

Detachment from the world

Attachment to God

Seeking the God of comfort

Seeking the comfort of God

Part C

The church really needs better sermons & study groups

I like thinking about God and theology

Illumination of mind is central to spirituality

I value truth

God has a good path into my life through my will.

The church really needs more experiential worship and relational groups

I enjoy feeling the presence and caring of God

Illumination of heart is central to spirituality

I value feelings

God has a good path into my life through my intuition.

Part D

I experience true transformation when God touches my heart.

Devoted

Touching

My heart rules my head

Compassion

I try to be a person of genuine feeling

I experience true transformation when I understand things in a new way

Determined

Convincing

My head rules my heart

Foresight

I try to be a consistently reasonable person
