Company Profile

Back in the 1950's, in the kitchen of their home located in the heart of "Pennsylvania Dutch" country, Lois and Lloyd Martin perfected their potato roll. Using a recipe that had been handed down in their family for longer than anyone could remember, and guided by Lloyd's twelve years of experience working in his father-in-law's bakery, the Martins soon felt they had a product they would be proud to sell. Their first customers were friends and neighbors who bought their potato rolls in local farmers markets. The sweet, buttery taste, soft texture, and distinctive golden color made the Martin's Potato Roll an instant favorite. Over the course of the next twenty years, demand for their product steadily increased. When the operation became too large for the Martin's home to handle, the bakery moved into the Martin's Family Restaurant. By 1978, a new plant was built at 1000 Potato Roll Lane in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, where they continue to do business today. In the meantime, distribution had grown from the local farmers markets to corner grocery stores and on to supermarkets across central Pennsylvania. Martin's Potato Rolls had indeed become "Famous." In the 1970's and 80's, Martin's Famous Potato Roll products forged a new category in the supermarket and established the gold standard for potato roll taste and quality. Various competitors in recent years have attempted to produce a "potato roll" that matches the taste, quality, and freshness of Martin's, but if market share is a fair indicator, none have measured up. Martin's was the number one brand of potato rolls on the day they created the category, and they continue to dominate in the markets where they have established full distribution. Today, the plant in Chambersburg is a 223,500 sq. ft. state-of-the-art bakery with continuous proofers, spiral coolers, automatic baggers, and robotic packaging machines. Martin's produces a line of potato roll and bread products that are delivered by a top-notch team of route salespeople, independent wholesalers, and distributors to supermarkets up and down the East Coast. The company Lois and Lloyd founded in 1957 has gone through many changes while keeping pace with its remarkable growth. The one thing that hasn't changed, however, is an uncompromising dedication to quality. In the words of Jim Martin, Lois and Lloyd's son and present owner, "We've been too hard-headed to cut any corners in over 40 years of baking the best potato rolls and bread we know how. Why give up on honest goodness now? We refuse!" The entire Martin's family and the many employees at Martin's Famous Pastry Shoppe, Inc., are all thankful for the success of the company and look forward to serving new customers in the future.

These hospitals provide highly specialized care to promote recovery from the most critical and complex medical and surgical conditions. Every Select LTAC hospital has many physicians on staff representing different specialties, as well as an experienced team of caregivers including nurses, respiratory therapists, pharmacists and rehabilitation therapists. Our hospitals are designed to offer patients a longer length of stay and a more resource-intensive level of physician and nursing care, respiratory services and individualized therapies. We provide a wide range of programs designed to treat: Cardiac/Heart Failure/Infectious Disease/Medically Complex Treatment/Neuro/Post-Trauma/Pulmonary/Ventilator Weaning/Renal/Wound Care. Our hospitals offer a variety of services including, but not limited to, the following: daily physician visits; multi-specialty medical and surgical consultants; low patient to nurse ratio; 24-hour nursing and respiratory; on-site physical, speech and occupational therapy; on-site pharmacy; cardiac monitoring; diagnostic and laboratory services; case management; discharge planning and more. Our hospitals are subject to all of the same medical review processes that Medicare uses to monitor all other health care facilities, including on-site surveys and intensive audits of medical records. LTAC hospitals are held to the same standards or conditions of participation as general hospitals in order to care for Medicare beneficiaries. At our hospitals, state-of-the-art technology, a patient-centered team approach, and evidence-based protocols are combined to return each patient to the most productive and fulfilling life possible, based on the patient's condition.
