2010-11 FULL ACADEMIC YEAR      FALL 2010 ONLY      SPRING 2011 ONLY

If yes, you must be the student's biological or adoptive parent or the student's step-parent. A step-parent is eligible to borrow a PLUS loan if their income and assets would be included on the 2010-2011 FAFSA.

If a FAFSA has not been completed for the student and the parent wants to borrow a Federal PLUS loan, a Student Status form MUST be completed in order to verify that the student is a dependent. This must be done before any Federal PLUS loan can be processed. Please complete the Student Status form on the next page (page 2).

Interest Rate: 7.9% fixed rate for the life of the loan. A Master Promissory Note (MPN) must be signed online at www.studentloans.gov. The Direct Loan Servicer will send repayment information directly to the parent/borrower after the loan has been approved and a signed master promissory note has been received.

Deferment options are available, but must be requested by the parent/borrower by calling Direct Loans at 1.800.848.0979.

If you have any problems with the www.studentloans.gov website, please contact Direct Loans at 1.800.848.0979.

If you did not complete a FAFSA and DO want a Federal Direct PLUS loan for your undergraduate student, you MUST complete this form before any Federal PLUS loan can be processed.
