

Discover this Week!

November 2nd—8th

The hook up to what's happenin' at MCPC, Temple, and in Philly.

November was called "Blood Month" by the ancient Saxons because that was the month they sacrificed animals to their gods.

MCPC

Pancakes Shall Appear BiWeekly

Get your pancake fix on Wednesday night at 9:30PM in the 2016 4th floor lounge.

Temple

Monday Night Film Series

Every Monday night you can watch films in room 101 of Tuttleman Learning Center from 5:15 to 8:30PM. This Monday "The Executioner's Song" is playing. Contact Kathleen Auerhahn at auerhahn@temple.edu for more information.

Temple vs Miami (Ohio)

Support the Temple football team on Thursday at 7:30. They are playing Miami (Ohio) at the Lincoln Financial Field.

Philly

3rd Annual Jewelry and Fine Craft Show to benefit Historic Strawberry Mansion

November 6-November 8, 2009

10am - 5pm

Horticulture Center, Fairmont Park

Historic Strawberry Mansion will once again be hosting a group of the region's finest craft and jewelry artists for its 3rd Annual Fund Raising Sale and Show. Admission and window shopping is free and refreshments will be available.

