French Minor
(21 credits beyond [FREN 102] or 18 credits beyond [FREN 201])
[FREN 201] Intermediate French (3)
[FREN 206] French Culture and Language (3)
Six credits from the following:
   [FREN 301] Contemporary French Culture (3)
   [FREN 320] Selected Topics in French (3)
   [FREN 401] Advanced Composition & Conversation I (3)
   [FREN 402] Advanced Composition & Conversation II (3)
Nine additional credits fulfilled at the Grantham Campus, or the ISA program in Paris, France (9)
Students may select among a variety of humanities courses that may include art history, culture, grammar, history, literature, or political science. Students should confirm with the Department of Modern Languages that the courses that they select are approved for the French minor.
Note: Students who demonstrated proficiency to the 201 level need to take 18 credits at the 206 level and higher.

Requirements for students who declare the minor in 2017-18.