

Employee Award Nominations

Do you work with someone who has gone above and beyond expectations this year?
Nominate them for recognition at this Spring's Employee Recognition Picnic!
Nominations will be accepted through March 7.

The Team Falcon Award is given to recognize a group or team that collaborated successfully on a significant project or initiative that advanced departmental or university-wide goals.

The Road to Reconciliation Award is given to employees who have demonstrated a leadership role related to reconciliation beyond the expectations of their positions.

The Pride in Performance Award is given to administrative and staff employees who have demonstrated remarkable competence in their role along with a consistent commitment to excellence and to working successfully with others to achieve the goals of the University.

The President's Award is given to administrative and staff employees who have demonstrated significant commitment, ingenuity, innovation and hard work in addressing a concern or challenge facing the University. This award is tied to a specific achievement or exceptional action.

To submit a nomination, use the QR codes provided above or you can find the Employee Recognition Forms by using the "Employee Forms" card on Falcon Link.
