HUMAN LIBRARY PROJECT

Where humans become open books, sharing their personal stories with readers

featured book: GLORIA IGIHOZO, ’19

“In the Image of Imana”

You wake up on a sunny morning to find death knocking on your door. You have less than a day to flee to safety with a baby, two toddlers, and the little you have left. Learn about the journey of a single mother in a refugee camp in the Democratic Republic of Congo, and her struggle to regain independence.
