SYNOPSIS

As the result of the curse of a once-beautiful witch, a baker and his wife are childless. Three days before the rise of a blue moon, they venture into the forest to find the ingredients that will reverse the spell and restore the witch's beauty: a milk-white cow, hair as yellow as corn, a blood-red cape, and a slipper of gold. During their journey, they meet Cinderella, Little Red Ridinghood, Rapunzel and Jack, each one on a quest to fulfill a wish.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Welcome to Into the Woods! Stephen Sondheim's and James Lapine's beautifully written musical reexamines the fairy tales we all know and loved growing up.

Cinderella, Rapunzel, Little Red Riding Hood, Jack and the Beanstalk: you can find these fairy tale characters everywhere in pop culture, from bedtime stories and movies to TV sitcoms and comic books. Why do these characters and their stories have such a persistent hold on our imaginations? What is it about the story of a girl who gets her wish to go to the ball, or a boy fighting off a giant that is so compelling? For me, these familiar stories highlight the realities of the human experience and allow one to examine the possibilities of our world as we wish to see it. However, this musical is not your average retelling of these fairy tales. It takes everything we know about these classic characters and turns that understanding on its head, offering us an opportunity to examine the wishes to we choose to make and how we deal with the consequences of those wishes.

Should every girl really dream of marrying a prince? What happens when we stray from the path? And is there such a thing as "happily ever after"? This play offers us a "woods" that is full of endless possibilities but also filled with uncertainty, a perfect metaphor for life. In our journey through the woods, we are all flawed, all hopeful, all looking to find a family/community while we journey towards home again.

Thank you for journeying into the woods with us; we hope you enjoy the show.

Daniel Inouye, Director

SILENT SKY Written by Lauren Gunderson, Directed by Daniel Inouye

When Henrietta Leavitt begins work at the Harvard Observatory in the early 1900s, she isn't allowed to touch a telescope or express an original idea. Instead, she joins a group of women "computers," charting the stars for a renowned astronomer who calculates projects in "girl hours" and has no time for the women's probing theories. As Henrietta, in her free time, attempts to measure the light and distance of stars, she must also take measure of her life on Earth, trying to balance her dedication to science with family obligations and the possibility of love. The true story of 19th-century astronomer Henrietta Leavitt explores a woman's place in society during a time of immense scientific discoveries, when women's ideas were dismissed until men claimed credit for them. Social progress, like scientific progress, can be hard to see when one is trapped among earthly complications; Henrietta Leavitt and her female peers believe in both, and their dedication changed the way we understand both the heavens and Earth. Poorman Black Box Theater Oct. 6 – 8 at 8pm; Oct. 9 at 3 pm

Steel Magnolias is set over the span of 3 years and tells the story of a group of friends, neighbors, and clients of hairstylist, Truvy Jones. The beginning of the play focuses on young Shelby who is preparing for her upcoming wedding. As Shelby's story progresses, we learn about her struggles with Type 1 diabetes, and her mother's concern about her leaving the nest and starting a family of her own. Although the ladies argue and tease each other, their friendship and sense of community holds them together. We see this at various points of crisis during the play and, ultimately, at the end when Shelby decision to go against her doctor's orders and have a child has dire consequences.

CRIMES OF THE HEART Written by Beth Henley, Directed by Ed Cohn

The scene is Hazlehurst, Mississippi, where the three Magrath sisters have gathered to await news of the family patriarch, their grandfather, who is living out his last hours in the local hospital. Lenny, the eldest, never left Hazlehurst -- she is the caretaker of the sisters' cantankerous Old Granddaddy. Meg, the middle sister, left home to pursue stardom as a singer in Los Angeles, but has, so far, only found happiness at the bottom of a bottle. And Babe, the youngest, has just been arrested for shooting her abusive husband, Zackery Botrelle. Their troubles, grave and yet somehow hilarious, are highlighted by their priggish cousin, Chick, and by the awkward young lawyer who tries to keep Babe out of jail. Under the scorching heat of the Mississippi sun, past resentments bubble to the surface and each sister must come to terms with the consequences of her own "crimes of the heart." Poorman Black Box Theater Feb. 16-18 at 8pm; Feb. 18-19 at 3pm

INTO THE WOODS Music and Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, Book by James Lapine, Directed by Daniel Inouye

Based on the Brothers Grimm most popular folk tales, Into the Woods is a reimagining of what can happen when beloved fairy tale characters are thrown together while pursuing their dreams and wishes. The Pulitzer Prize- and Tony Award-winning team of Stephen Sondheim and James Lapine bring to life characters such as Cinderella, Little Red Riding Hood, Rapunzel, Jack (down from his beanstalk), the Baker and his wife, a pair of princes in search of their brides, and the big bad wolf who is on the lookout for his next meal. It intertwines these stories in increasingly dramatic and humorous ways and asks what comes after the "happily ever after" and whether the journey through the woods was worth it in the end. Miller Theater March 23-25, 31 & April 1 at 8 pm; March 26 & April 2 at 3pm; *March 30 at 10am special school performance
