Thank you to Xavier Bryant and Clara Bellot for voicing our parents. Special thanks to Josie Christ for lending your artistry to our set. Thank you to the alumnus and fellow seniors who have given us the opportunity to learn from them. Thank you to our professors; we are honored to receive both your knowledge and wisdom. Thank you to the dozens of people who have contributed to this show in both little ways and big. Thank you to our Freak Family for joy, laughter, inspiration, and our own little pocket dimension.

A NOTE FROM THE CREATORS

The only thing we knew about this project when we started was that we wanted to tell a story about grief. There is something so compelling about this universal experience; grief leaves a hole in those it touches, and we wanted to use our art to soothe the ache. We knew the most effective way to achieve this goal was to pursue honesty in our show. Throughout the devising and rehearsal process we pushed our actors to find rich connections to their characters and with one another. We pursued openness and reality in our design with the hope of immersing our audiences in a world that felt familiar. In every way, we set our sights on uncovering the authentic love on which the most bitter grief is centered. In finding this, and helping our characters move out of the storm of their grief, we hope to offer audiences a shelter from their own.

BIOS

AJ Jerome (Bea) is a recent Messiah alumni. While they enjoyed theatre in high school, this is their college acting debut. Outside of performing, AJ works in special education, writes poetry, and spends time with friends and their cat George. AJ is honored to be a part of Ella and Megan's senior show and hopes that everyone leaves impacted by the story.

Eleanor Mund (Charlie) is thrilled to have been part of crafting this profound story with Megan and Ella. She is a junior musical theatre major, having appeared in Messiah shows such as By the Bog of Cats (Hester), Who Will Carry the Word? (Denise), and Crimes of the Heart (Meg), among others. Huge thanks to everyone for their hard work, as well as her friends and family for their unending support. Thank you and enjoy!

There will be one 15- minute intermission between performances.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

"Never give up, and be confident in what you do. There may be tough times, but the difficulties which you face will make you more determined to achieve your objectives and to win against all the odds."

BY THE BOG OF CATS Written by Marina Carr, Directed by Daniel Inouye

Loosely based on Euripides' tragedy Medea, this is the prophetic tale of Hester Swane, an Irish Traveller, who attempts to come to terms with a lifetime of abandonment in a world where all whom she has loved have discarded her. Set on the bleak, ghostly landscape of the Bog of Cats, this provocative drama discloses one woman's courageous attempts to lay claim to that which is hers, as her world is torn in two. Hester's long-term lover, Carthage Kilbride, with whom she has a seven-year-old daughter, is selling her "down the river" for the promise of land and wealth through a marriage with the local big farmer's daughter. In the final moments of the action, we witness a woman provoked beyond the limits of human endurance. By the Bog of Cats is a furious, uncompromising tale of greed and betrayal, of murder and profound self-sacrifice.

The story takes place in the home of the wealthy Orgon, where Tartuffe—a fraud and a pious imposter—has insinuated himself. He succeeds magnificently in winning the respect and devotion of the head of the house, and then tries to marry his daughter and seduce his wife and scrounge the deed to the property. He nearly gets away with it, but an emissary from King Louis XIV arrives in time to recover the property, free Monsieur Orgon, and haul Tartuffe off to jail. And so his duplicity is finally exposed and punished.

PETER RABBIT AND ME Written by Aurand Harris, Directed by Ed Cohn

Peter Rabbit and Me is a delightful dramatization of the beloved story of Peter Rabbit. Beatrix Potter, age 13, is a poor little rich girl secluded in her top-floor nursery. She creates her own excitement by inventing and illustrating stories about her pet animals. Beatrix transforms into Peter, her Governess becomes Peter's mother, and her stern Victorian father becomes Farmer McGregor. Here is a revealing and charming glimpse of Victorian society in contrast to the antics of the uninhibited animal world. Peter Rabbit and Me is filled with humor, adventure, colorful characters and all of the magic of children's theatre.
