I hereby activate this agreement for a residence hall space for myself at Messiah College for the ENTIRE ACADEMIC YEAR 2018-2019, from the applicable date of check-in until the applicable date of check-out as stated below. I understand this agreement will be terminated in the event of my withdrawal, suspension or dismissal from the college, permanent removal from the residence hall by the College, completion of my degree requirements, or participation in an off-campus study program. I agree to be an involved member of the living learning community, pay applicable fines, attend regular floor meetings, and participate in hall activities. I agree that this agreement does not create a landlord/tenant relationship between me and Messiah College, and does not convey any leasehold or other real property interest. I understand that the terms “resident,” “occupant,” or “student,” as used in this agreement, apply to me. I understand the terms of this agreement and agree to abide by them.

1. CONDUCT OF RESIDENTS: The resident of the space assigned agrees to abide by the Community Covenant and Code of Conduct of Messiah College and is subject to College policies relating to residential living facilities as published in the current Student Handbook and incorporated in this contract by reference. A resident is assumed to be aware of these policies.

2. CHECK-IN PROCEDURE: Returning students with traditional housing contracts can complete the check-in procedure:

   - Beginning at 9 a.m. on Sunday, September 2, 2018 for Fall
   - Beginning at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, January 8, 2019 for Spring

   Early Arrivals:
   - All early arrivals must be approved by the Residence Life office. Fall early arrivals can occur starting August 20 for sponsored and individual students. An additional per day room fee will be charged individually to those who move in after August 20 and before the designated opening day of August 31 for new/transfer students and September 2 for returning students. There will be no early arrival for non-sponsored students for Spring semester.

   Required All Special Interest House Meeting – all residential students are required to attend a building meeting that will be held on Monday, September 3 at 7 or 8 p.m. Details and locations will be communicated upon move in. A $25 fee will be charged to any students who do not attend without an approved absence.

3. REQUERED HOUSE MEETINGS – anytime there are all hall meetings, the house members are all expected to attend an all special interest house meetings. Times and locations will be communicated by the RA through individual contact, emails and/or signs in the buildings. A $25 fee will be charged to any students who do not attend without an approved absence. The meetings will be held on the following dates:
   - Monday, September 3, 2018 – 7:00 or 8:00 p.m.
   - Tuesday, December 11, 2018
   - Monday, February 4, 2019
   - Tuesday, April 30, 2019

4. HOUSE INVENTORY: The resident of the space assigned shall be responsible for any unassigned loss, damage, repair, or replacement of the furnishings, doors, windows, walls and the conditions of the space during the term of occupancy. Upon arrival and departure, the resident will be given the opportunity to inspect the space and conduct an inventory of the furnishings and condition of the space with a representative of the Residence Life Office. Any student who chooses not to fill out a condition inventory form may be held financially responsible for all damage in the room. For check out a representative of the Residence Life Office is to inspect and lock the space after the inventory is completed.

5. HOUSE KEY: Receiving a house key is part of the check-in procedure. Any student who does not pick up a room key within the first 10 days of class will receive a $75 fine for improper check-in. Upon departure from residence, the house key must be returned to the Resident Assistant or Residence Life Office. Failure to do so will subject the resident to a key replacement charge of $75.00. A house key may not be duplicated. If the room key is lost or stolen during the term of occupancy, a key replacement charge of $75.00 will be made to the student’s College account.

6. HOUSE INSPECTION: To ensure all furnishings remain in the assigned space throughout the year, a member of the College staff will inspect this space during winter break, spring break, and at departure. The resident(s) will be billed the current replacement value of those items missing, damaged or broken following each inspection period. Resident Directors or College staff members will conduct an inspection each semester to ensure rooms meet fire and safety requirements and the resident(s) will be responsible to make necessary changes within one day of receipt of violation notification. If during any of the inspections mentioned above, violations of the student code of conduct are found, appropriate judicial procedures may be initiated. The College reserves the right to enter and inspect residential space at any time for maintenance needs and for reasons of health or safety.

7. MINIMUM & MAXIMUM AGE: Minor students who are at least 16 years of age may be approved to live on campus. Students aged 26 or older are not allowed to live on campus. Requests for an exception can be made to the Assistant Director of Residence Life – Housing.

10. CONDITION OF HOUSE UPON DEPARTURE and DAMAGES: All trash will be bagged and removed by the assigned resident. Failure to remove trash or leave the house in clean and acceptable condition will result in an assessment equally divided between each assigned resident. Moreover, if the common areas of the house are left in disrepair, a charge for returning the common area to its original condition will be equally divided among all residents. All personal belongings must be removed from the space assigned upon departure. The College assumes no responsibility for belongings left in the space assigned. Additional charges may be assessed if residential space is occupied following the required check-out.

11. WEEKLY GROUP MEETINGS – will be held at the house to build community and to fulfill the goals and mission of the house.

12. ADVISOR – One house member is expected to meet with the advisor once a month.

13. SEMESTER REPORTS – the residents of the house will submit a semester summary at the end of the first semester and a blog or video that demonstrates learning about the theme. The video/blog will be used for special interest house recruitment. Expectations of what is to be included in the semester summary will come from the Residence Life Graduate Assistant.

14. INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY: The occupant of the space assumes responsibility for any act, behavior or conduct that originates from the space assigned or selected.

15. COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGE: The College reserves the right to assess students for damages to public areas and furnishings within the common spaces of the house. If individuals responsible for damage cannot be identified, the residents of the house will be deemed collectively responsible for the cost of repair or replacement. In situations where the damages are extreme, repetitive, or the unit is severely disruptive, the students may be subject to the College disciplinary process resulting in sanctions, including housing relocation.

16. SPECIAL HOUSE ENTRY AND SEARCH: The College reserves the right to enter and search any residential space in an emergency or if there is reasonable cause to believe a violation of College policy, local, State, or Federal Law is occurring. Any such entry and/or search is subject to the Student Search Policy published in the Student Handbook.

17. BREAK CLOSING: During Winter and Spring break closings students are required to move-out by the designated date and time to avoid penalties. Date and time will be announced within a reasonable timeframe prior to breaks.

23. PERSONAL INSURANCE: The College accepts no liability for the theft, loss, or damage by fire, water or appliance failure or otherwise of money, valuables, computers, or any personal property of the student either in the student's residential space or in College storage areas. Students are urged to purchase their own insurance to cover such losses. The Residence Life office works with a company who offers insurance specifically for college students. Information can be found at the Residence Life office or by contacting http://gradguard.com/school-search. Since family homeowner's insurance policies sometimes provide coverage for the personal property of a resident member away at school, students are also encouraged to check with their family's insurance agent regarding policy coverage.

24. RECYCLING AND TRASH REMOVAL: Trash and recycling pick-up is on Monday mornings (put at the end of driveway on Sunday evenings) for Melhorn, East Street and Foreman. Rafiki, Woodland & Bertram House use campus trash and recycling services. Rafiki, Woodland & Bertram House need to take their trash to a central drop-off location for their area. In accordance with Pennsylvania Act 101, the occupants of the space assigned are encouraged to separate recyclable glass, aluminum cans and all plastics.

25. CABLE & INTERNET: The college is providing cable and internet to all of the special interest houses. The cost has been adjusted to include these amenities.

26. PARKING: Students living in the Rafiki House or in Woodland are not allowed to park at the house and must apply for a parking sticker like other students who live in on-campus residences. For those who live in the special interest houses located around the perimeter of campus, parking is free, however residents are expected to apply for a special interest house parking sticker so the Department of Safety can determine which cars are permitted to park at the house. A commuter parking pass for parking in the Starry Field lot can be obtained from the Department of Safety.

27. VACANT SPACE(s): If a space should become vacant in your room or apartment, the college reserves the right to assign the space without prior notice. You are expected to make adequate space available for roommate(s). Additionally, if you fail to do so, you may be subject to judicial action or additional fees.

28. REASSIGNMENT PROCESS: The College reserves the right to temporarily or permanently reassign students to another residence hall space at any time during the term of occupancy.

29. SANCTIONS FOR ALCOHOL & TOBACCO USE - If alcohol or tobacco is found in the Special Interest House or if residents of the house are found responsible for use of alcohol or tobacco those students will be reassigned to a residence hall room.

30. ROOM CHANGES: A student may not move from his/her assigned space to another without the prior authorization of the Residence Life Office. A request to make such a change must be initiated through the appropriate Residence Director and approved by the Assistant Director of Residence Life - Housing. Students who move without authorization will be subject to a fine of $200.00 and/or cancellation of their space assignment.

31. REFUNDS: Room charges are refundable to students who officially withdraw from the College under the same formula and conditions as those applicable to tuition subject to policies published in the Messiah College Catalog.
32. STORAGE: No personal items or furniture may be stored in the house. The house must be completely empty at the end of the school year. On-campus storage is available for house/programmatic items. The College assumes no responsibility for any loss or damage of items stored.

33. MEDICAL FORMS: All medical forms must be completed and returned to Engle Center (health services) in order for a student to receive a room key for a residential room and building.

34. CREDIT REQUIREMENT: Students must enroll and maintain a minimum of 12 credits per semester in order to qualify for residential housing. Exceptions are made by the Assistant Director of Residence Life - Housing on an individual basis for any student who is enrolled in less than 12 credits.

35. CANCELLATION POLICY: Continuing/Current Students: Any continuing student who chooses to cancel her/his housing contract prior to August 1st may do so without penalty. Any cancellation received between August 1st and move-in day will be subject to a $100 cancellation fee. After move-in students will be assessed a $250 cancellation fee in addition to the daily housing rate. Both will be charged the student’s account. All cancellations must be in writing and received by the Residence Life Office. Any student who qualifies as a commuter (lives locally with family, part time student, married, 23 years old or older) and decides to live off-campus for the second semester will not be charged the $250 cancellation fee if the housing change is made with the Residence Life Office before the first day of J-term.

36. NON-DISCRIMINATION: Messiah College does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, color, disability, or national or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other College-administered programs. It complies fully with the prohibitions against discrimination on the basis of sex contained in Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972. By entering into this contract, student residents agree to honor and support the College's commitment. Discrimination or harassment of others in violation of this commitment will be cause for dismissal from the residence halls.
